Mankind's Natural State

Good people?

The Bible makes it very clear that "no one is good, no not one." Jesus said, "there is only one who is good, God." It is no secret that from the earliest time in their lives people sin against God. An observant look at young children will tell us this. But the Word of God has confirmed it again and again. People are steeped in sin from birth (Ps 51:55). It is the natural state of mankind, that we are sinners, fallen short of God's required standard (Rom 3:23,5:12). Mankind fell into sin and darkness when Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit and transgressed against the law of God. At that time, the spirit of man died, thus the channel of communication with God, who is Spirit, was cut off. Mankind no longer had communion with God, no longer did we naturally understand the things of God or even have a desire to do so. Mankind is therefore described as "dead in transgressions and sins" (Eph 2:1), that is, before coming to Christ in repentance and faith. The truth is, mankind neither pleases God nor seeks after God, and that in his natural state does not even possess the ability to understand the things of God.

Rom 3:9-12 - 9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all; for we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin; 10 as it is written, "There is none righteous, not even one; 11 There is none who understands, There is none who seeks for God; 12 All have turned aside, together they have become useless; There is none who does good, There is not even one." 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes." NAS

1 Cor 2:14- 14 But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised. NAS

What does depravity mean?

Depravity is a term used to describe the natural sinful state of men and women. As the scripture has said, people are enslaved to sin, their hearts being deceitful and desperately wicked, and in their natural state are unable to please God or even understand the things of God. Mankind has a natural inability to seek after, understand, or please God.

Indeed unregenerate persons have minds, which are hostile to God, and have their minds set on the sinful nature.

John 8:34- 34 Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave to sin." NIV
Rom 8:5-8 - 5 Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. 6 The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace; 7 the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. 8 Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God. NIV

The Bethlehem Baptist church makes a statement about depravity which follows:

When we speak of man's depravity we mean man's natural condition apart from any grace exerted by God to restrain or transform man. There is no doubt that man could perform more evil acts toward his fellow man than he does. But if he is restrained from performing more evil acts by motives that are not owing to his glad submission to God, then even his "virtue" is evil in the sight of God.

Romans 14:23 says, "Whatever does not proceed from faith is sin."

This is a radical indictment of all natural "virtue" that does not flow from a heart humbly relying on God's grace.

It is clear therefore that the natural person, apart from the regeneration of the Holy Spirit (being born again), abides in a sinful and rebellious state in relation to the Holy God, and is therefore "by nature, an object of God's wrath."

Eph 2:3-4 - 3 All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature objects of wrath.

The consequence of sin

It is important for us to understand the meaning of human depravity and just how lost and without hope mankind is apart from the saving grace of God in Christ. God has testified that we are sinners, separated from Him by our sins, and in a hopeless and awful condition, destined to perish in death and separation from any good thing.

1 John 1:10 - 10 If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives. NIV

This is why Jesus came into the world. He came to redeem mankind from his sins. He came to pay the penalty, which we could not pay and live, for if anyone pays the penalty for sins, he/she will die. Death is separation from God, who is the source of everything good. Death is an eternal state of intense suffering which is never satisfied or comforted. Jesus said of death, "it is outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, where the worm never dies and the fire is never quenched." (Mk 9:48, Matt 25:30) The intensity and utter agony for the human soul in that place can neither be understood nor comprehended.

Rom 6:23 - 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. KJV

Ezek 18:4 - 4 For every living soul belongs to me, the father as well as the son-both alike belong to me. The soul who sins is the one who will die. NIV

Rom 5:12-13 - 12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned- NIV

Rev 21:7-8 - 8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars-their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death." NIV

The Bethlehem Baptist church makes a further statement which follows:

The reality of hell is God's clear indictment of the infiniteness of our guilt. If our corruption were not deserving of an eternal punishment, God would be unjust to threaten us with a punishment so severe as eternal torment. But the Scriptures teach that God is just in condemning unbelievers to eternal hell (2 Thessalonians 1:6-9; Matthew 5:29f; 10:28; 13:49f; 18:8f; 25:46; Revelation 14:9-11; 20:10). Therefore, to the extent that hell is a total sentence of condemnation, to that extent must we think of ourselves as totally blameworthy apart from the saving grace of God.

Natural inability and its remedy

Friends, as we have clearly seen, the bible describes the natural state of man to be depraved. Based on this, we have made these two statements;

1. Mankind has a natural inability to seek after, understand, or please God.
2. The truth is, mankind neither pleases God nor seeks after God, and that in his natural state does not even possess the ability to understand the things of God.

Therefore, in order for man to even seek after, understand or please God, he must receive a divine work of God whereby he receives the capacities needed to understand. Jesus clearly states in John chapter 6 that no one can even come to God unless God has enabled him. Y

John 6:65 -65 He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has enabled him." NIV

This divine work we call regeneration. This is what Jesus explained in John chapter 3 to Nicodemus, one of the chief Rabbis of Jesus day. Jesus explained that in order to even "see" the kingdom, one must be "born again."

John 3:3-7 - 3 In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again." 4 "How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb to be born!" 5 Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. 6 Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit. 7 You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You must be born again.'" NIV

Jesus further explains that this is why He came into the world. People could freely receive this divine work of God by having faith in Him. The English word translated "believe" really falls short of the biblical meaning of faith. Jesus claimed that those who possessed this faith "would not perish but have eternal life." This is good news. We have already seen that man is lost in sin and in a desperate condition resulting in death. But here we see the compassionate and loving heart of God, sending His Son into the world to provide for man everything he needs to be redeemed or "bought back" from sin and death. Jesus freely offers eternal life to those who will believe, but warns that those who do not believe are already condemned, remaining in their natural sinful state. He also describes to some degree here the natural state of man saying that "men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil" and that man "will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed." He offers then that if mankind will simply come to Him in faith, God will enable them to understand and receive a right standing with God not based on mankind's merits, but on God's free gift provided by the perfect and sinless life of Jesus Christ. Dear reader, if you have not placed your faith in Christ, you will die in your sins without hope or remedy for your desperate condition! But if you will simply come to Christ just as you are, confessing your sins and turning away from them (repentance), He will freely pardon you and grant you eternal life in heaven, a place of eternal happiness and bliss where God fulfills every good and loving desire of your heart.

John 3:16-21 - 16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. 18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son. Y 19 This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but men loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. 20 Everyone who does evil hates the light, and will not come into the light for fear that his deeds will be exposed.

21 But whoever lives by the truth comes into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what he has done has been done through God." NIV

Friend, God is not willing for anyone to perish nor does He delight in the death even of the wicked and sinful man or woman. The sinful heart of mankind, who is unwilling to even acknowledge that He exists, grieves God. In His grief, God has freely offered a way where man by his free choice can be pardoned of his sins and be restored to a right standing with God (righteousness). This is the glorious good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

There is much more to be said of these matters, but for the purpose of this lesson, we will end here. For more information on these matters go to www.heavenslight.org.
